If the minimum number of registrations to run a course have not been received, Fine Vintage is entitled to cancel the course by providing the student at least 30 days' notice.

In the event a force majeure such as adverse weather, fire, or government-mandated closure forces Fine Vintage to cancel a course or a portion thereof, students will receive a refund for the amounting to the portion of unused course dates affected by the force majeure.

In the event of a course cancellation, Fine Vintage will refund the tuition or portion thereof within 30 days after advising of the cancellation.
